- P Park along canal in car park. Walk through the Silver gate at the edge of car park towards the Lime Kilns.
- 1 Walk along path following it round to the left towards the stables. After passing the stables the path will split. Follow this right heading towards the Lime kiln. Here you will pass the remains of a stone crusher on your left and stairs going up towards the kiln. Keep following the path straight on and through a wooden gate into a field.
- 2 Follow the path round to the left back through another wooden gate and continue forward following the path. As you come towards a interpretation board take the path left through the remains of the old railway . Turn right and follow the path towards the tally house. Here the path continues underneath a tunnel (the highway goes above here) continue up the English include. Going through a metal kissing gate and reaching the drum house at the top.
- 3 The path splits into two, follow it round to the left. Following the path passing through a wooden kissing gate and coming to another drum house.
- 4 Here follow the path to the left and turn left towards the opening. This takes you slightly off the path and towards the view point. After taking in the view retrace your steps back to the drum house and towards the wooden kissing gate. Don't go through the gate but turn right following the path down the Welsh Incline.
- 5 Continuing down the incline until coming to a metal gate taking you left and through a field joining the English incline at the other side. Continue back through the tunnel under the road and past the tally house on your right.
- 6 Again follow the path left through the open tunnel where the old railway once went and take the immediate right going down towards the lime kiln. Feel free to explore the kiln itself and then return the way you came back to the Carpark.

T These are the nearest and only public toilets on this walk, located on station road opposite the cottage. besides these the golf club house should have some that is located about half way around the walk
