

Irresistible Offa

Presteigne Town

- P Walk from the car park down the steps into High Street and turn right. Continue to the crossroads, noticing the carvings on your left and the timbered house on your right.
- 1 Cross into Hereford Street beside the black and white timbered yet colourful Radnor Buildings. The many 17th century houses in town include an old smithy down Harper's Lane.
 - 2 Double back to the crossroads. The Post Office now stands on the old Shire Hall.
 - 3 Turn right down Broad Street, past The Judges' Lodgings and several 16th/17th century houses. Turn left at St Andrew's Church.
 - 4 Walk up Church Street into St David's Street.
 - 5 Turn right to see the impressive Radnorshire Arms. Either continue past the inn, turning left and left again to the car park, or double back to the car park steps.

T The nearest toilets on this walk are those located in the local pubs. The Radnor arms is the most central one for this walk
